Gun Shots Halt Party; Hold Sunnyvale Man

Joe Shelton, 2376 Poplar Ave., East Palo Alto, today can credit a gun that misfired with saving his life.

Shelton was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Shelton, 2927 Crocker Ave., just outside the city limits of Redwood City, Christmas Eve when he and Roy H. Ring of Sunnyvale argued over attentions paid Mrs. Muriel Pierce, 2921 Crocker Ave.

Shelton pushed Ring out of the house, the sheriff's office reported today. Ring obtained a gun from the adjoining house and started after Shelton. Shelton ran out the door and Ring fired a shot while he was running. Two more shots were fired while Shelton was on the ground trying to get under a fence.

The first two shots went wild. With Ring standing over Shelton, the third shot misfired, the sheriff's office reported. Sheriff's deputies found a mark made by the firing pin on the shell in the gun.

When sheriff's deputies arrived, Ring jumped through a bathroom window but was captured. He was booked in jail here for assault with a deadly weapon.

Mrs. Pierce said Ring was her "boy friend," the sheriff's office reported. Mrs. Pierce's divorced husband, Harvey Pierce, 1127 High St., was at Mrs. Pierce's home when the argument started.

The F. M. Sheltons yesterday moved to 624 11th Ave.

Police Station Scene Of Disturbance

Silvio Vignola, 627 Hamilton St., entered the Redwood City Police Station to report a minor automobile collision at 1:45 a.m. today, and a few minutes later found himself on his way to the County Jail where he was booked on three charges.

Charged with drunkenness, disturbing the peace and malicious mischief, Vignola tore a telephone from its connection, used profane language and created a scene in the station, police said.

His accident story revealed only a bumping of bumpers occurred, police said.

Three People Hurt In Brisbane Crash

Three persons were injured in a traffic accident Tuesday one-half mile south of Brisbane on Bayshore Hwy., the California Highway Patrol reported today. They were taken to the South San Francisco Hospital and later released.

Injured were Mrs. Oretha McCoy, 22, of 153 Valdeflores Dr., Burlingame, driver of one car, who suffered lacerations on her nose and forehead; Stenton O'Connell, 32, of Gilroy, driver of the other car who incurred abrasions of the left knee and Dan O'Niel, 32, of 931 Edinburgh St., San Mateo, passenger in O'Connell's car who suffered abrasions of the left knee, forehead and chin.

O'Connell was traveling south on Bayshore Hwy. when the accident occurred, patrolmen said. When officers arrived shortly after 7 p. m., both cars were locked together. Further details of the accident can not be obtained until Mrs. McCoy reports to the CHP office, it was disclosed.

Order McBride To Pay Support

Superior Court Judge A. R. Cotton this week ordered Dr. Rexford McBride, prominent Burlingame physician, to pay $500 monthly to his wife, E. Dorothy McBride for the support of herself and for their three minor children. The order was contained in a decree of interlocutory divorce based on a trial held in superior court June 28.

The judge granted the divorce to Mrs. McBride on the grounds of cruelty.

He awarded custody of the three children, Joan, Jerry and Dana McBride, to the wife. To her also went the proceeds of the sale of the McBride's Burlingame home, which funds are on deposit at California Pacific Title and Trust Co., one of the two family cars, certain Russian River real estate, war bonds and furniture in her possession.

To Dr. McBride went his insurance policies, furniture and office fixtures, the other automobile, television stocks and Half Moon Bay property. Judge Cotton also authorized $150 attorney fees.

Youth on Bike Injured in Crash

Howard N. Carriveau, 492 Gilbert Ave., North Palo Alto, incurred a bump on the head when he was thrown from the bicycle he was riding after a collision with the car driven by Kenneth Ray, Ft. Ord, at University Ave. and Cowper St., Saturday night.

Ray took the injured boy home. His injury did not appear to be serious.

Charles S. Downen, 2039 Cooley Ave., East Palo Alto, bit a hole in his lower lip when his mouth struck the steering wheel of the car he was driving, following a collision with a tree at 1935 Emerson St. early this morning. He was treated at the hospital.

Toll in Christmas Holiday Travel Continues To Rise

Three persons were dead and at least five were injured as a result of traffic accidents in San Mateo County during the three-day Christmas weekend.

Muriel Colelough, 23, of 482 Frederick St., San Francisco, was killed almost instantaneously when the car in which she was a passenger collided with one driven by Sven J. Sterner, 63, of 1520 Howard Ave., Burlingame, at 9:10 p.m. Saturday, California State Highway patrol officers reported.

Lt. William Wetsel of Hamilton Field, driver of the car in which Miss Colelough was riding, suffered a broken arm and other injuries in the crash and Mrs. Ruth Wetsel, 25, wife of the lieutenant and sister of the dead woman, was also injured.

Sterner, who is in "fair" condition from a head injury at Mills Memorial Hospital, was cited for driving on the wrong side of the highway, patrolmen said.

Two Christmas celebrants, one a sailor, were killed in accidents involving pedestrians Sunday morning near Brisbane.

Edward Raymond Snyder, 60, of 1565 Washington St., San Francisco, was struck by a car driven by O. Ralph Kemmer, 38, of 1047 Valla Vista, Vallejo, when he walked out onto Bayshore Hwy., south of Brisbane at 1:10 a.m. Sunday.

Patrolmen said Snyder had been drinking and stepped in front of Kemmer's auto.

At 4:45 a.m. Sunday, a 36-year-old sailor, John O. Martin, was instantly killed near the site of the previous accident when he stepped in front of a car driven by Albert Joe Richter, 29, of 1038 Main St., Redwood City.

Martin was in an intoxicated condition, investigating officers reported.

Saturday afternoon at 2:55 o'clock, Mrs. Charles Miles, 26, of 980 Sierra Point Rd., Brisbane, was injured when a car driven by Mabel C. Ross, 35, Box 736, Brisbane, was struck from behind by Earl D. Scribner, 40, of 925 Guerrero St., San Francisco.

Mrs. Ross had stopped on Bayshore Hwy. to make a left turn onto Visitacion Ave., Brisbane, when Scribner collided with her automobile, the impact tipping the car in which the two women were riding over on the side.

Neville P. Whitney, 32, of 1116 El Camino Real, Burlingame, was driver of a car which knocked over a roadway light south of Brisbane Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock, patrolmen said.

Whitney, a clerk, was taken to the County Jail on a citation of drunken driving after the accident which severed a power line, blacking out the street lights in the vicinity.

Patrolmen said Whitney's car, northbound, veered to the west side of the highway where it broke off the pole.

Yule Buying Rush in R.C. Sets Record

Redwood City's volume of Christmas buying was the largest in its history, according to merchants and bank officials this week, who quoted total purchasing figures up to 45 per cent more than any previous holiday season, indicating the immense scale of yuletide shopping.

"We just didn't have enough baby buggies," Al Davies, owner of Davies Auto Co., said today in describing the trend of Christmas buying. At Montgomery Ward's, shoppers purchased everything, while in former years they tended to favor two or three articles, Mgr. Raymond Flood disclosed. "Saturday, Dec. 16, was our heaviest day," Flood said.

John Rosselli, manager of Lock's Drug Store, reported that sales were 45 per cent heavier this year than in years past. "It was a tremendous and surprising season," he said. Purchasers favored men's preparation sets, cigaret lighters, fountain pens and sets for ladies.

Candy was undoubtedly one of the most popular items on every Christmas list, acording to reports. Rosselli disclosed that almost as soon as boxes and bags could be obtained they were sold, and the supply never met the demand.

Robinson's Ten Cent Store reported a 15-per cent increase over sales last season. Mgr. Mrs. Manuel Kaise said that gift wrapping, ribbon and Christmas card stocks were depleted early in the week.

Banks, too, indicated the amazing volume of Christmas buying with reports of greatly increased withdrawing of funds and crowds waiting in line to transact business.

Two explanations for the huge volume of holiday shopping can be offered. One is that a population increase of 49 per cent in this area since 1940 has brought a rapid influx of new people to this area. The other is that war salaries have given workers more money to spend than ever before, merchants said.

Mrs. Edith Pope Succumbs in S.F.

The active and philanthropic life of Mrs. Edith Taylor Pope, 2001 Forest View Ave., Burlingame, came to a close Tuesday when she succumbed to a "circulatory disturbance."

At her bedside were her three children, Maj. George A. Pope Jr., 735 Bromfield Rd., Hillsborough, on leave from the presidency of the McCormick Steamship Co.; W. Kenneth Pope and Mrs. Emily Pope Trumbull, both of San Francisco.

Mrs. Pope was 76 years old.

Sailor Jailed, Charged With Stealing Car

Booked at the county jail on charges of stealing a car belonging to Mary Cardoza, 1455 Gordon St., Christmas morning, a sailor, Woodrow Wilson Mosely, 28, stationed at Tanforan, San Bruno, will be turned over to naval authorities for prosecution, police reported this week.

Mosely stole the car, which was parked in front of 1213 Middlefield Rd., at 1:20 a.m. Sunday.

Social Service 'Santa' Brings Cheer to Children

The strange story of social service Santa Claus in a world made rich with wartime wages was unfolded this week by Adrian Ward, superintendent of San Mateo County's Public Welfare Department.

Social service workers distributed more than 100 gifts to children in San Mateo County, children who otherwise would have had no Christmas.

Most of these children, he said, are in boarding homes.

They are the children of couples divided by the war, by illness, by divorce and death.

They range in ages from four months to 16 years, and they are scattered from Daly City to Menlo Park, from Pescadero to El Granada.

In many cases, Ward disclosed, the father is in the armed services and the children must look to the mother for sole support. In others, either the father or mother is in a state institution. There is a surprisingly large number of the latter cases, Ward said.

Using no public funds, but assisted by a $100 gift from the Salvation Army, another fund from the Redwood City Kiwanis Club, the Native Sons and $50 from individual subscriptions, the social service section purchased more than 100 gifts. All of the gifts, according to Mrs. Lavilla Heeney, social service supervisor, were substantial—large dolls and teddy bears, games, athletic equipment, toilet articles and books.

The presents, individually wrapped in gay yule decorations and addressed to each child personally, were distributed by Mrs. Heeney and her assistants, Mrs. Emma Ellwood and Miss Barbara Robinson, on Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Theresa Altieri distributed baskets of food to the child cases on the state assistance list, Ward said.

Meanwhile eight inmates of the juvenile home each received gifts at their Christmas tree party Sunday evening, at which Ward himself played Santa Claus. A $50 gift from the Kiwanis Club was used to buy the gifts.

"The saddest thing about the party," Ward said, "was that not one parent showed up."

At the Relief Home each inmate received one or more personally addressed gifts, some from San Mateo merchants, others from individuals in Redwood City. The Community Church of San Carlos sent its singers to the home Sunday to sing Christmas carols. The Christmas menu included turkey with all the trimmings, mince and pumpkin pie. The Relief Home party was arranged by Mgr. B. J. Kost, Chef Thomas Tomaskovitch and Head Nurse Pauline Emmons.

Redwood City Seabees Join Birthday Celebration

More than 240,000 officers and men of the "workingest, fightingest bunch of men" in the nation's armed forces, the Navy Seabees, celebrated their anniversary yesterday. Redwood City Seabees have written home about their coming birthday with letters received from W. T. 1/c C. P. Ortiz, Seaman 1/c Harold Zeitman, Arthur L. Balsame Jr., G. M. Golley, S. F. 3/c, and Pasco Balzarini.

Born just three weeks after the Pearl Harbor disaster, with an authorized strength of 3000, the Seabees won their spurs on Guadalcanal and have been with the assault troops on every major American amphibious operation. Maj. Gen. Vandergrift says, "I do not know how we could have gotten along without the Seabees."

The men of the naval construction battalion can now boast that they have built the network of air and naval bases in the Pacific that pushed the Japs back 3000 miles and that they developed amphibious equipment and techniques that helped win the day on the Sicilian, African, Italian and Normandy beachheads. President Roosevelt says, "The Seabees have come forward as an institution more quickly than ever I knew one in the whole of our history."

Seventy-six per cent of the Seabees are currently outside the limits of the continental United States.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur recently wrote to Seabee chief, Vice Adm. Ben Moreell, "The only trouble with your Seabees is that you don't have enough of them!"

Guy Golley, 19, is a local Seabee who wrote home about the construction battalion's anniversary. He entered the navy just before his graduation from Sequoia High School in June, 1943. In November of that year, his brother, Aviation Cadet Jack D. Golley, died of spinal meningitis. Guy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Golley of 1446 Hopkins Ave. and has another brother in the service, Lt. Robert Golley.

Harold Zeitman is another local Seabee. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zeitman of 518 Grand St., he graduated from Sequoia in June, 1943, and entered the service five months later.

Also celebrating tomorrow will be Seabee Pasco Balzarini, the son of Mrs. Lena Balzarini of 619 Spring St. He was formerly a gardener at Sequoia High School, from which he graduated in 1937, and was also second vice president of Italian Catholic Federation.

Sailors Assist In Thief Capture

The alertness of two sailors, awaiting a ride to their base at San Bruno, Monday was commended by Redwood City police following the arrest of a gasoline thief Sunday morning at 3 o'clock.

Relating their story to police, the navy men said they were passengers in a car driven by William F. Clendenin, 34-year-old mechanic from San Francisco, when he drove to 122 Fulton St., parked his car, and disappeared only to return with a can of gasoline.

After emptying the contents in his car, he disappeared for the second time, and the sailors, suspicious of his actions, departed from the scene in Clendenin's automobile.

Driving to the police station, the pair told Officers Joel Mansfield and M. C. Osborn who arrested Clendenin as he was leaving the address.

Now in the County Jail, Clendenin was booked on a petty theft charge.

Police identified the car from which he had obtained the gasoline as belonging to James Misz, 122 Fulton St.

The sailors told police Clendenin had offered them a ride to their base at Tanforan.

Menlo Park Blaze Causes $1000 Damage

Fire this week completely gutted Pearson's Truck Stop—an all-night lunch room in Menlo Park. Firemen, who halted the blaze at the Bayshore Blvd. and Carlton Ave. restaurant, estimated damage at more than $1000.

Phillip Lovelle is the owner.

Three R.C. Families Get Surprise Yule Gift

Christmas was a doubly joyous occasion for three Redwood City families this year when boys who had been overseas for nearly three years arrived home to spend the holidays with their parents.

Cpl. Jack Irwin Gibson of the army tank corps surprised his mother, Mrs. C. W. Gibson, 832 Sweeney Ave. when he arrived home Thursday on a 30-day furlough. He had been in the South Pacific for three years. Before entering the army, he was a mechanic at Oleson and Son and R. & R. Co. He is a graduate of Sequoia High School.

Gunner's Mate 1/c Jack Milne was the Christmas Eve surprise of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Milne, 514 Clinton St. He has spent the last 18 months in the Aleutians and this is his first visit home in 28 months. Jack was formerly sports editor of the Sequoia Times and he enlisted in the navy immediately after his graduation from Sequoia.

Arriving home this morning, Pvt. Thomas Ryder, 19, surprised his mother, Mrs. Mabel Ryder, 561 Madison Ave. when he walked in unannounced. Tom, a former Sequoia High School student, has been in the service since June. He will be home for 10 days. The young soldier is stationed at Fort Riley, Kan.

Santa's Reindeer Goes Wandering in R.C.

One of Santa's reindeer wandered off from the team Christmas Eve and, attracted by the shrubbery in the garden of Albert Ichelson's home, 237 Arlington St., decided to investigate further. But the gate swung closed after the 85-pound buck had entered the yard and he was cornered.

Redwood City police answered the Ichelson's call and, binding the deer's feet, they deposited him in the squad car and drove to the hills above Emerald Lake, where they set St. Nick's legendary helper free, an ending which was in keeping with the true holiday spirit.

HALT CAFE FIRE

Redwood City Fire Dept. extinguished a blaze in the motor of a refrigerator at Broadway Cafe, 2300 Broadway, at 12:23 a.m. Monday. Smoke in the place was noticed by police, who turned in the alarm.

OPA Gives Gas Book Instruction

Instructions to motorists for endorsing their gasoline ration books with their new 1945 automobile license numbers have just been announced by the mileage rationing division of the district Office of Price Administration.

On receiving their new license plates, car owners should draw a line lightly through the old license number on the cover of the ration book, and write the new number above it. Care should be taken that the old number is not completely obliterated, OPA emphasized.

The same procedure of crossing out the old number lightly and adding the new one should be followed with the mileage rationing record.

The old license number, written on the face of the gas coupons by the motorist upon receipt of the ration book, should not be changed on the individual coupons, OPA added.

Dr. Clyde Duniway Of Stanford Dies

Dr. Clyde Augustus Duniway, historian, college president, and devoted friend of Stanford, died Sunday at the Palo Alto Hospital, where he had been under care for a week for a heart ailment. He was 78 years old and had been in failing health for some time, although able to carry on his usual activities on a limited scale.

His death leaves unfinished the task of editing the covered wagon diary of his mother, Abigail Scott Duniway, Oregon pioneer and suffrage worker, but he had already completed the history of Stanford men and women in World War I which he had been commissioned by Chancellor Ray Lyman Wilbur to write it in manuscript form, its publication halted by the onset of World War II.

Dr. Duniway was born in Albany, Ore., Nov. 2, 1866.

Best known among his published works were "The Freedom of the Press in Massachusetts," issued in 1906, and a volume on Daniel Webster, in 1927. He held a Ph. D and and LL. D. degrees from the University of Colorado.

Two of his three sons survive him—Ben, regional attorney for the Office of Price Administration, who lives in San Francisco, and Davis, who is with the National Archives in Washington, D. C. John Duniway died of poliomyelitis a number of years ago. There are three grandchildren.

Funeral services for Dr. Duniway will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Stanford Memorial Church.

Airport District Planning Begins

County Planning Adviser Ronald Campbell this week took the first step toward organizing a South County airport district by calling a meeting of representative citizens for Friday, Jan. 5, at the Grace & Pierre Cafe south of Redwood City.

Frank Skillman, secretary to the planning commission, pointed out that a flood of airport applications is descending on the county, and that the result may be a series of second-rate, relatively unsafe establishments.

The major topic of discussion at the Jan. 5 meeting, Campbell said, "will be the advisability of San Carlos, Belmont, Redwood City and Menlo Park organizing a district for the purpose of acquiring a site for and developing a Class 2 airport to be used for commercial and private flying purposes."

Among the guests will be the mayors of Belmont, San Carlos, Redwood City, Atherton and Menlo Park; Ray Hess, district engineer for Civil Aeronautics Authority and his assistants, Joseph K. Hicks and Oliver G. Johnson; city engineers and R. A. Mead, city manager of Redwood City.

National War Labor Board
Washington, D. C.

Your telegram of December 14, demanding that Wards comply with the War Labor Board's order covering Wards four Detroit stores, was obviously intended to give to the public the false impression that wages are the major issue.

The board knows very well that Wards has offered to adopt the minimum wage rates recommended by the board. The board knows very well that Wards policy is to pay wages as high as or higher than those paid by other employers in the community for similar employment. The board did not base its wage recommendation upon the survey of competitive rates made by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Mr. Davis, chairman of the War Labor Board, deliberately attempted in his December 16 press release to mislead the public into believing otherwise. Wards only objection to any of the board's wage recommendations has been in those instances where the board has arbitrarily demanded that Wards substantially increase its rates above those of its competitors in the highly competitive retail field.

The board knows very well that the real issue arises from its attempt to impose upon Wards a closed shop in the form of maintenance of membership, together with the check-off of union dues from wages. Wards has refused to agree to any form of closed shop, or compulsory union membership, because the closed shop violates the American principles of liberty and freedom. The board is well informed as to Wards position.

Mr. Davis is quoted in the press as threatening the cancellation of Wards priorities, the denial of scarce materials to Wards, and the seizure of its business if Wards does not comply with the board's demands. These are the tactics by which the board has coerced innumerable employers into granting special privileges to labor unions.

The board knows very well that its orders cannot be legally enforced by such punishments. Congress, which is the sole law making authority under our Constitution, omitted from the War Labor Disputes Act all provisions which would have given board orders the force of law. Congress included in the original draft of the law a section which would have made board orders enforceable in the courts. Congress later removed this provision upon the written request of Mr. Davis, who asked that board orders be left as "mere declarations" which no one could be compelled to accept. Mr. Davis' express reason for his request was that the board would then not be "subject to court review of its decisions."

The board knows very well that its orders are consequently unenforceable. The court of appeals of the District of Columbia has held, at the request of the attorney general acting as counsel for the board, that orders of the War Labor Board are merely "advice" which no one has any legal duty to obey. The court held that anyone who refuses to comply with orders of the War Labor Board is not defying a command of the government and that, since the orders are merely advisory, no government official has the right to impose punishment on those who do not comply. The supreme court has refused to alter this decision.

The board knows very well, since its orders are legally unenforceable, and since Congress has not authorized any punishment for those who reject the advice of the board, that the reprisals with which it threatens Wards are necessarily illegal. The President of the United States knew this when he recently explained to Mr. Petrillo of the American Federation of Musicians why that union could not be compelled to obey a board order.

Wards has violated no law, nor denied to any union a privilege to which it is legally entitled. Wards has many times informed that board that its closed shop demands would require Wards to violate the National Labor Relations Act. Wards cannot in good citizenship accept the board's advice, and give to the union special privileges which Wards believes to be not only unfair and uneconomic, but illegal.

The time has come for the board to cease its threats of reprisal upon those who reject its advice. The board's policy of granting special privileges to unions has led to a breakdown of collective bargaining and has encouraged strikes in time of war. The board's disregard of the facts and its pretense of an authority which it does not possess have destroyed the confidence of labor, industry, and the public. The usefulness of the War Labor Board in the settlement of wartime labor disputes has been destroyed.

The best interests of employees and employers and the welfare of the American people, demand that Congress face the realities of the country's need. The great problem of wages and the closed shop in time of war should be governed by law and must be solved by Congress.

If the board desires a further hearing, Wards, as always, will be happy to attend.

Hospital Head Demands North County Ambulance Aid

Dr. E. I. Bartlett, one of the owners of South San Francisco Hospital, this week demanded that the county provide some type of public ambulance service in the northern part of the county.

"The county should be compelled to provide this service," he declared, after disclosing that two critical cases which required immediate removal to Community Hospital at San Mateo could not be moved until late this afternoon because the county had no ambulance service whatever available this morning.

"The county informed me it would have no ambulance drivers on the job until 1 p.m.," Dr. Bartlett said. "There was no ambulance service at all this morning. And they told us that they had two cases ahead of ours for afternoon calls."

Dr. Bartlett said one of the cases was an attempted suicide which showed signs of recurring violence, and the other involved a heavy drinker with a broken shoulder who was developing symptoms of alcoholic hallucinations.

"We are operating a private hospital and we have no facilities for handling this type of case," Dr. Bartlett declared, "yet these patients must lie around here until the county has an ambulance driver available."

Dr. Bartlett said the private institution had an ambulance but could hire no drivers.

"If we use our ambulance we must send a doctor to drive it," he said. "Our doctors are so busy with other duties that we simply cannot spare them."

He accused the county of neglecting the ambulance problem completely.

"We'll let the county have our ambulance if the county will provide competent drivers," he offered.

Meanwhile Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health director, said his postwar plans included ambulance units in the north county, in the San Mateo-Burlingame area, at Redwood City and on the Coastside.

In connection with his plan to move the headquarters of his entire department—public health, public welfare, administration—to the San Mateo-Burlingame area, the director said he planned rather complete units in each of the four locations. The units would include quarters for public health nurses, sanitary inspectors, ambulances, a clinic, and a small emergency hospital. He made it plain that the plan was a long range affair designed for the growing needs of the county over a period of 15' to 20 years.

At the present time the only county ambulance service available is operated out of Community Hospital on a part time basis.

Dr. H. W. S. Hayes, hospital superintendent, said there is never any ambulance service available from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m., but that the one county ambulance is in service at all other times during the week except from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Tuesdays and Saturdays. The county has two drivers for the lone vehicle.

Dr. Hayes said the reason the ambulance could not answer the South San Francisco calls this morning was that it had been out all day on other calls, one of which took it to the state hospital at Agnew.

Charge R. C. Negro With Rape Attempt

Charged with attempted rape Christmas Eve, Willie Johnson, 48, Negro, who lives at 1327 Hancock St., was held in the county jail, Redwood City police reported today. In a complaint filed by Ruby Johnson, 18, of 202 Linden St., he is charged with attempting to rape her some time during the night of Dec. 24. Police are investigating.

About half the boundary of New York State is water.

Joseph L. Hyman Leaves Large Estate

Joseph Lec Hyman, member of the county probation committeee, Redwood City resident and San Francisco attorney, who died Dec. 11, left an estate valued at $100,000 entirely to his widow, according to a petition for probate of his will filed in superior court this week.

Accompanying the will, written Aug. 27, 1937, was a petition for a $500 monthly family allowance for Mrs. Hyman.

County Population Skyrockets To 167,000 in Huge 5-Year Gain

Population of San Mateo County has increased 49 per cent since 1940, California Taxpayers' Assn. has estimated. The increase in the past year has been 17,000—from 150,000 on Jan. 1, 1944, to an estimated 167,000 on next Jan. 1.

The 1940 census showed 111,782 people in the county. Since 1940, the county has grown by 55,200 persons.

Population in California is estimated at 8,842,700 for Jan. 1, 1945. This is a gain of 1,935,300 from the 6,907,387 persons in the state at the time the April, 1940, census was taken and is an increase of 28 per cent in less than four years. Population of the state a year ago—Jan. 1, 1944—was 8,373,080.

Twenty-one counties in California have had increases of 20 per cent or more in population since the 1940 census was taken.

The taxpayers' association population estimates are based primarily on the number of children enrolled in the elementary grades of public schools. Employment records, ration book rolls, etc., also are considered. The estimates include the civilian population of the county, together with Californians in military service. No information is available on military populations located in the state, the association stated.

Los Angeles County, with an estimated increase of 655,360 since the last census, led the state with a population of 3,441,000, compared with 3,322,000 a year ago.

San Francisco County was second with 750,000, compared with 735,000 a year ago and an increase of 115,450 over 1940. Alameda County has an estimated population of 735,000, against 650,000 a year ago and an increase of 222,000 over 1940. San Diego County has 459,000 estimated population, compared with 425,000 a year ago and 169,650 more than in 1940.

Other counties, with 1945 and 1944 population estimates and increase over the 1940 census were Contra Costa, 272,000; 228,000 and 171,550; San Bernardino, 221,400, 203,000 and 60,300; Santa Clara, 218,000, 207,100 and 43,050; Fresno, 207,000, 195,000 and 28,435; Sacramento 203,000, 193,000 and 32,660.

Kern, 174,000, 156,000 and 38,875; San Joaquin, 173,000, 163,200 and 38,800; Orange, 172,000, 164,000 and 41,250; Riverside, 128,900; 125,000 and 23,375; Tulare, 122,000, 116,000 and 14,850; Solano, 111,000, 110,000 and 61,900; Stanislaus 102,000, 92,000 and 27,150.

Imperial, 55,000, 54,300 and minus 4750; Kings, 39,000, 37,500 and 4630; Marin, 78,100, 71,500 and 25,200; Monterey, 92,600, 91,500 and 19,570; San Luis Obispo, 455,300, 42,900 and 12,050; Santa Barbara 81,500, 80,300 and 10,950; Ventura, 83,000, 79,000 and 13,300.

The statement said the population estimates were based primarily on the number of children enrolled in elementary grades of public schools together with employment records, ration book rolls and other data. Estimates include civilian population together with residents in military service.

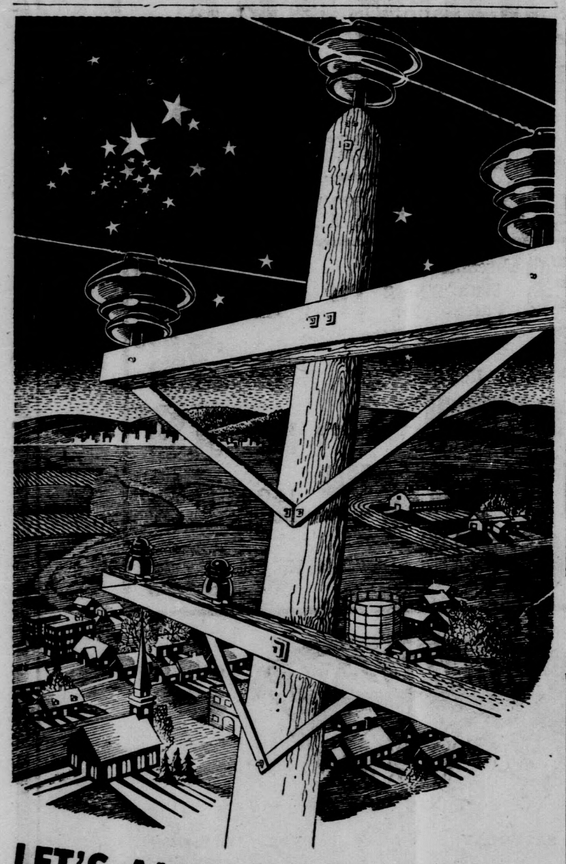
Christmas Eve Blaze Damages Radio Shop

An overheated soldering iron was blamed for a small fire in the Miller Radio Shop, 2376 Broadway, Sunday at 12:42 a.m., according to Redwood City firemen.

A small hole was burned in the floor, firemen said.



LET'S ALL PULL TOGETHER

Surely, out of the experiences of this war, we've all learned to put a higher value on unity of purpose.

Without it, miracles of production could not have been accomplished...and the progress of mankind would be stalked by the spectre of "too little, too late."

Let us hope, that out of the darkness of war will come the dawn of a better world in times of Peace. With freedom of action and unity of purpose, there can be no ceilings on progress if we all pull together

Entertaining, New Year's Eve or New Year's Day

FRIENDS coming to your house, on either of those important dates? Here are some suggestions that may help you plan what to serve them. For a midnight "snack" in the grand manner might include easy-to-prepare items as:

French Onion Soup
French Bread or Hard Rolls, Toasted
Celery—Pickles
Green and Ripe Olives
Lots of Coffee!

Or, if you'd rather serve something more along the breakfast line:

Scrambled Eggs and Bacon
Hashed Brown Potatoes
Toast or Soft Rolls
Jam or Marmalade
Lots of Coffee!

And whether it snows or rains or the sun shines cheerfully, presents an ideal opportunity for holding an open house, when folks may drop in for a friendly visit. It's nice to have a few little tidbits for their refreshment—such as plenty of:

NEW YEAR'S DAY

Sliced Fruit Cake
Nuts—Candy
Coffee or Punch

If your New Year's Day plan calls for a family dinner rather than an open house, let it be built around a hearty meat:

Baked Ham or Meat Loaf
Creamed Onions
Baked White or Sweet Potatoes
Pickled Fruit or Cranberry Sauce
Lettuce Wedges with Favorite Dressing
Orange and Grapefruit Cup
Sliced Fruit Cake—Nuts
Coffee
